Dear Reader,

As we look forward to the exciting prospect of a new year, we can't help but look back at our journey through 2010. It was filled with the makings of new clients, friends and of course, NatureMaker Steel Art Trees! We found ourselves traveling from coast to coast and everywhere in-between with installations in Florida, Ohio, Virginia, California, Dubai, Macao and more. Whether it was a health center, university, toy store or library, one common theme weaved through it all—a vision to create positive and restorative environments. We hope 2011 brings you joy, prosperity and hopefully, a NatureMaker tree sculpture of your own!
