Hi there! I'm Florencia, the editor behind Within Studio Blog. I'm an interior designer and philanthropist in Tucson, Arizona.

Here's my professional website and my nonprofit organization. You can follow me on Twitter as well!

And you can find Within Studio on Facebook!

Within is also a guest blogger at 88 Cushing!

We are so glad that you are reading Within's Blog! This blog is about celebrating the details, the art, the design in Everything!

We are here to look within walls, within architecture, within us as users and designers...

{ mission statement }

Our mission is to inspire! To be involved and to be innovative every step of the way!

Or dining inside .. or outside?

It is possible to make Nature!

Last year I went to the HD Expo in Vegas, and had the pleasure of meeting this manufacturer. "Nature Maker Artificial tree sculpture is a bold synthesis of art, design, and engineering."

All their materials are fire retardant and conform to the maximum ASTM E 84 flame/smoke rating.

In addition, all the trees installed in public spaces are ADA compliant.

They are gorgeous... ranging from 25K to 500K and up!
